

Hi Everyone,

I hope you are all keeping well and that you've enjoyed lots of Easter eggs and all the fine weather.

Please find an outline of work for the next week below.

If you are finding any part of the work too difficult, too long or if it is causing stress please don't worry, do what you can and this will be more than enough, we will catch up again in time.

If you have any questions about the work or would like to contact me for any reason please send an email to blynch3rd@gmail.com

Keep safe and hopefully we will all meet again before long,

Ms. Lynch

6. Planet Maths: Topic 23 Area

The following links on area might be useful in helping you better understand the concept of area.

<https://www.khanacademy.org/math/basic-geo/basic-geo-area-and-perimeter/basic-geo-unit-squares-area/v/introduction-to-area-and-unit-squares>

<https://www.khanacademy.org/math/cc-third-grade-math/imp-geometry/imp-count-unit-squares-to-find-area/v/introduction-to-area-and-unit-squares?modal=1>

Area is the amount of space a surface takes up or the amount of space the surface of an object takes up.

To get a greater understanding of what area is complete the following activity.

Get some playing cards or match attack cards (it doesn't matter what type of cards as long as they are exactly the same size).

Use these cards to cover the surface of your kitchen table, a floor tile, your maths book. By doing this you are measuring the area of these surfaces using cards.

You will see that you will need more cards to cover your kitchen table than your maths book, this tells us that the area of the kitchen table is greater.

Having complete the above activity read the blue box 'Area' on the top of page 138.

For the questions that follow you will be measuring area in squares as shown in this box.

Complete activities P138 b,c,d in your copies.
